Program For 2012 On 88 Pages In The Catalog.

Essentially Prestige (a specialist of Prestige Holidays travel company) announces excellent results for the 1st year program for Croatia, and expands program for 2012 on 88 pages with the catalog.

Novelties for 2012. are:

- Five new destinations - Banjole near Pula, Fazana, Savudrija, Sumartin (island of Brac) along with the island of Mljet
- Villas in the rural area (inland) of Istria along with the island of Brac and Hvar with self-catering (there are also self-catering apartments on Hvar island)
- More all-inclusive hotels - an overall of five
- More three-star hotels in the Dubrovnik area
- Two lighthouses, one in the vicinity of Dubrovnik, the 2nd near Porec - both transformed into holiday villas
- Weddings around the island of Rab and in Dubrovnik
- Vacations with golf
- Itineraries for driving around the detailed routes in Istria, Kvarner, Central Dalmatia and Dubrovnik. area (chance of individually customized itineraries)

As you can see, bid for your 2012 includes several quality localities determined by self-catering accommodation with the aim of attracting more families to go on holiday in Croatia.

In 2011, Essentially Prestige organized study trip to Croatia for journalists and 25 directors who take care of sales and reservations. For 2012. they planned a report tour to different regions, more journalists and series of visits of travel agencies representatives, that are engaged in 'Love Croatia' program of Essentially Prestige.

This year's catalog is primarily informative, but coded in a clear and friendly style with clues about the details of the country that just a true specialist for Croatia may offer.

Cheapest price of Essentially Prestige visit to Croatia in 2012 is L 299 per person for seven-day stick to bed and breakfast in the Fortuna hotel on the island of St.Nicholas in Porec, with flights from London (Stansted) to Pula.

John Dixon, president and CEO of Essentially Prestige said: 'The sale of arrangements for Croatia exceeded expectations by about 1 / 2, and we expect 150% growth in 2012. Our expert on Croatian market, Julia Berg has chosen and also complete new offer. Her work was invaluable in relation to promoting our program for Croatia and also training our staff!'

Julia Berg adds: 'I am particularly pleased that I was involved in a new Prestige Essentially program. We try to present more and more parts of Croatia, so on this year's catalog we added three itineraries for solo driving with seven or maybe more nights.

With the beautiful coastline and islands that Croatia owns, it is not easy to convince people to move in the interior. So using these offered itineraries people prefer to visit the interior, and some national parks - such as Risnjak, Krka waterfalls and Plitvice lakes.

Holiday with golf courses is extremely popular in the UK, and we all presented Savudrija as a golf destination, along with the possibility of wedding on the island of Rab or in Dubrovnik. It is enormous challenge to persuade the British to go play golf in Croatia, that's unknown as a golf destination, but we chose to try it as reported tagza.com.
