

Published based on How To Briskly Change The Name On Your U.S. Passport

How To Briskly Change The Name On Your U.S. Passport

For an expedited pass port name change, consider using an online passport and visa service. All passport services will guarantee that you will have an updated United States passport in time for your departure. There are many web based passport services on the internet. While a passport name change is not all that difficult to achieve, it still requires a lot of documentation, paper work, and other requirements. A professional service will guarantee that this is all done properly. Many find that it is worth the cost for the understanding that their travel plans will not be postponed.

It is not difficult to change your name on a passport. However, you must follow certain steps to correctly complete the proper application process. The passport name change application is available for download from the internet. It is not that difficult to change your name on your own. However, you may want to consider using one of the online passport services. They have the experience to guide you through the process. When time is of the essence, you do not want to take the chance of a glitch that could delay your travel plans.

A passport name change will require that you gather certain documents that you must fill out and submit, while following a set process. A professional passport and visa service have the personnel, experience, and tools to do this, because this is all they do. The process must be followed exactly or else your request will be denied. This is another reason to use a professional.

You will need your marriage certificate and a court order. These are the two most important documents required. The official seal of the issuing authority must be on the court order and/or marriage certificate. All documents must be certified or notarized. If they are not certified or notarized, the documents will be rejected.

The federal government passport name change application can be downloaded from the web. A passport service can also give you a hard copy of the application. You must already have a valid and current United States passport. Your passport can not have been issued before your eighteenth birthday. A court of law must have approved your name change. You must present documentation from the court to demonstrate that your name change is legal.

If you must leave the country suddenly and you need a passport very quickly, a passport services can assist you with an overnight passports service. Professional passport services will return your fee if you do not have your passport issued before your departure date. This is a guaranteed service. It is very important to have all your paperwork and documentation ready in order to expedite an emergency passport request.

To have your passport name change go forward, you must currently possess a valid US passport. You must present an officially notarized or certified court order as proof of your legal name change. You are also required to submit two passport photos. You must prove your intention to travel by presenting airline tickets.

There are many passport and visa services on the world wide web. A simple search on a major search engine will give you a good list of professional services. It is always prudent to do some background checking to make sure a service is legitimate. You will find it helpful to get all the required documentations together ahead of time. This way, the process should go quite smoothly. You will have your updated urgent pass port name change in time for your departure.

You can also find this article published on How To Briskly Change The Name On Your U.S. Passport, and on the tag pages Name, Passport, passport name change, passport name change application, passport services, process.